ARTS

Granada Foundation

Aims/priorities: Grant for voluntary and community organisations undertaking projects that encourage involvement in and understanding of the fine arts and science in the North West of England. The Foundation wishes to encourage and promote the study, practice and appreciation of the fine arts, including drawing, architecture and landscape architecture, sculpture, literature, music, opera, drama, cinema, and the methods and means of their dissemination. The Foundation also welcomes applications which aim to engage and inspire young people and adults to take an interest in science. In general, the Council looks for imaginative proposals which will in some way make the north-west a richer and more attractive place in which to live and work. Preference is given to supporting new projects. Although the Foundation will support festivals and other annual events, it is on the understanding that such support should not be regarded as automatically renewable.

Who can apply: Organisations in the North West of England are eligible to apply. Preference will be given to organisations with charitable status

Grant amount: No stated minimum or maximum amounts

Application process: Applications are made via a two-stage application process:

- Applicants must first submit an enquiry form or call the Foundation for an informal discussion
- An application form will then be sent to organisations that the Foundation considers suitable to apply

Paul Hamlyn Foundation

Aims/priorities: The overall purpose of this fund is to support arts organisations working with schools, colleges and other education environments to improve the evidence base for their work, so that they can do more to enhance the lives, development and achievements of children and young people. In particular, we want to support high quality arts-based learning activities that bring about and evidence positive and sustained change in one or more of six priority areas:

1. Young people's academic achievements
2. Young people's achievements and progression within one or more artforms
3. Young people's soft-skills and or well-being, social, moral and or cultural development
4. Young people's access to, and participation in, arts-based learning activities
5. Whole school culture, integration, cohesion and/or community relationships
6. Staff knowledge, confidence and skills in delivering arts-based learning activities

Who can apply: Applications from charities, community organisations, social enterprises and not-for-profit companies active in the arts. Applicants must be working in partnership with schools or other formal education settings – i.e. primary and secondary schools, further education colleges, pupil referral units and special schools
