What you'll get from The Thinking Shop

- Useful space to think .
- Structured questions.
- Conversation and reflection.
- A practical Thinking Book to take away.

The Thinking Shop is not a training course. There is no presentation and no expert with all the answers. Instead, it offers time to think about what your organisation is doing, reconnect that activity with why it exists, and consider whether your time and attention are focused in the right places.

Who is this for?

- Charities
- CICs
- Community groups
- Voluntary organisations
- Other not-for-profit organisations
