

Women Change Makers: Strong, Skilled and Unstoppable

Celebrating International Women's Day with free training for women

Tuesday 22nd March 2016 // 10am - 2pm // Green Fish Resource Centre, Oldham Street, Manchester City Centre

Want to make a difference?

Want to support others in your community and your family?

Join us and learn coaching and networking skills for free and celebrate the power of women as change makers.

This event celebrates the power of women to make a difference, and is for all women who want to give back to their communities and their families.
We are celebrating the work of women through Oxfam's Retail Volunteer Scheme and offering free training in coaching and networking skills delivered by professional coach, Pami Loomba.
