

Health Literacy Awareness

The Better Information Programme

Did you know that around half of adults in the UK struggle to understand health information? This online course will teach you what health literacy is, how it affects you and your clients, and how better health literacy can help.

The course is designed for staff from health, social care and community organisations. Book your FREE place here:
<https://buzzmanchester.co.uk/learnabouthealth/thebetterinformationprogramme>