

The Early Help Assessment e-learning Course

Manchester City Council, Children and Families Division, are committed to the development of a range of support for partner agencies, who undertake the Early Help Assessment.

Now available as part of our shared training and information resources, is the Early Help Assessment e-Learning Course.

Currently free of charge to you this training opportunity;

- Provides you and members of your team/agency with a comprehensive insight into the Early Help Assessment and wider aspects of the Early Help Journey.
- Gain an opportunity to acquire (post course) accreditation as an Early Help Assessment Practitioner.
- For a fixed period, gain access to nearly 200 additional e learning courses.

If you would like details as to how up to 3 members of your agency can access this unique learning opportunity please email:

a.gilfillan@manchester.gov.uk