Proudly supporting youth social action

people with disabilities). This fund is part of the wider multi-agency #iwill campaign.

There are 6 key principles of social action that your project should include:

- Challenging – Taking the young people out of their comfort zone, whilst keeping the activities fun and enjoyable
- Youth-led – Young people are taking a lead in decision making and creating ideas for the project
- Socially Impactful – The project has clear benefit to the community
- Progressive – There is knowledge of your local area and how the project can link in with existing activities
- Embedded – A sustainable project giving lasting skills that can be used throughout life
- Reflective – The young people are able to look back on the project and evaluate their experiences

Who can apply? The funding is for community groups working in Greater Manchester.

This fund is open to registered charities, constituted community groups and other charitable organisations, including social enterprises and CICs. National organisations with local branches (with their own management committee and bank account) can apply. Projects do not have to be led by a youth group.
