

Respect For All Counselling

About Respect for All

Respect For All is a registered charity offering counselling and play therapy to people have learning disabilities, Asperger's, or autistic spectrum conditions, and supporting their parents, families and carers.

The service is for children, young people and adults across Greater Manchester, offering counselling in English and British Sign Language.

The service was developed by a group of volunteers who have experience of learning disabilities Asperger's and autistic spectrum conditions, and of life as a carer.

Recruiting trustees

The charity is growing, dealing with increased demand on services in a competitive and complex funding environment. We are recruiting a new trustee at this exciting time in the charity's life to help to take the organisation forward and increase the availability of specialist counselling to those with learning disabilities, Asperger's and autistic spectrum conditions, their families and their carers.

For further information you can visit our website www.respectforall.org.uk or contact us by email on info@respectforall.org.uk. If you would like to talk to one of our trustees to find out more, please include your contact telephone number in your email, and let us know when it would be convenient for someone to call you.
