Host a Talk
English
Course

Host a Talk English Course in your centre and help people learn English.

We are looking for organisations that want to get involved in the Talk English project to host informal, beginner English courses for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) from October 2014 – June 2015. We will support your organisation to deliver the Talk English Courses which will be taught by a pair of volunteers trained and supported through the project.

As a host organisation on this project, you would be expected to:

- provide a suitable classroom space for the delivery of a weekly ESOL class from October 2014 – June 2015
- ideally provide volunteer ESOL teachers with access to computers, printers and/or a photocopier and secure storage for teaching resources, materials and paperwork
- ensure there is a responsible person on site during class times, who can support volunteers in the event of any unexpected problems or emergencies

If required, we will provide some reimbursement to your organisation towards costs incurred for hosting a class. We also have limited funds available for organisations that are already set up to provide on-site crèche for learners who need childcare.

We will provide training and support for volunteer ESOL teachers, as well as the resources and learning materials needed to deliver beginner English classes. You can nominate existing staff or volunteers from your organisation to teach the course or we can place volunteers with you.
